

youthweekendaway2019

The weekend away this year is back at the frontier centre in Northamptonshire (25th - 27th October) (£70% each)

The weekend is for 11-16s. There will be fun times looking at the bible, playing games, hanging out & eating together. With guest speaker Sick Nashton* (curate at a really hipster London church, he went to the same school as Josh Fieth and is the owner of massive dinner-plate-size hands).

Limited space available, book early to avoid disappointment! For more information or to book contact the youthworker: Andy Cook on: 01223 363545 or andycook@stmatthews.uk.net

\* aka Nick Ashton, he is curate at Christ Church Mayfair  $\circ$  a leader on Sparkford 3 summer venture \* half price for guests  $\circ$  additional siblings
